

Andrea Smock

6315 Secor Road
Lambertville, MI 48144
734-854-5437
Smockan2@msu.edu

Objective

To continually better myself in the area of education. To be a more efficient teacher in order to improve

Employment History

Teacher

2006-Present New Bedford Academy, Lambertville, MI

- 7th/8th grade Science and Math teacher, 2009-Present
- 8th grade Social Studies teacher, 2009-Present
- 5th-8th grade Language Arts teacher, 2006-2009
- Student Council Advisor

Day Camp Counselor/ Youth Lounge Worker

2001-2007 Monroe Family YMCA, Monroe, MI

- Planning activities and crafts
- Caregiver, with other counselors, of up to 80 children
- Communicating with parents

Member's Service desk

2005-2007 Monroe Family YMCA, Monroe, MI

- Handling money
- Registering customers for classes
- Interacting with members

Child Care Provider

1995-2001 Cindy Horenstein, Monroe, MI

- Provided care for 3 children, ages 6-13
- Helping with homework
- Preparing meals
- General child care

Education

2010-2013 Michigan State University, Lansing, MI

- Master's Degree of Education

2001-2004 Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, MI

- Bachelor's Degree
- Major – Language Arts
- Minor – Structure of Discipline

References

References are available on request.